

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Castle & Cooke have a new notice elsewhere.

The price of sugar was 3½ at the latest advices.

There will be a moonlight battalion drill tomorrow evening.

The messenger service has mounted its boys on Columbia bicycles.

Admiral Walker and staff made a farewell call on the Government Saturday.

Dr. H. W. Howard has his office at Dr. Wood's residence on Beretania street.

Nearly everyone in the city missed the familiar nine o'clock gun last evening.

Rev. T. D. Garvin had a large and appreciative audience at his services yesterday.

J. N. Wright advertises for tenders for painting the pavilion at Independence Park.

Braham says that Giles would not have won, if he had not drank the "Popular" root beer.

The August number of the Paradise of the Pacific will be out in time for the Australia's mail.

B. F. Ehlers & Company have the names of the prize-winners in their guessing contest in the ladies' column.

Arthur Johnstone, the Star's editor, received Saturday, the sad news of the death of his father in California.

The royalists claim to be very jubilant over the news received on Saturday. Where does the jubilation come in?

The police found a bundle of cloths on the Waikiki road Saturday afternoon. It is being kept at the Station house.

Miss Hannah Eastman was an arrival by the Australia. She will assume charge of the kindergarten for foreign children.

The Boards of Registration and Examiners will sit at Ewa plantation and the Ewa court house on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

A native died suddenly at Koolau, this island, on Saturday afternoon. His name could not be ascertained. Alcoholism is said to be the cause of his death.

Tomorrow there will be a moonlight parade, Wednesday the band will play at Thomas Square and Thursday at Makee Island. Friday a concert will be given at the Hawaiian Hotel.

George Beckley, the pursuer of the Kinau, will try to make arrangements to have the local bicycle riders race on the Volcanoroad. If he is successful a handsome gold medal will be offered as a prize.

A lot of live terrapins came on the steamer Saturday for Lewis & Co. They received also consignments of extra fine tomatoes and choice apples, besides the usual line of ice house goods. Telephones 240.

Francis Harden, the exile, writes that if China will not accept his services he will return to Honolulu in about three months. Francis ignores, with a stoicism worthy of a better cause, the great fact that everybody wants to forget him.

Captain E. D. Crane had two ribs broken on Friday afternoon. He was riding on horseback on Queen street; a hack drove up behind him and one of the occupants struck his horse with a whip. The animal became unmanageable and while it was rearing about it fell down, throwing Mr. Crane at the same time.

To Reside in Honolulu.

C. L. Wight, of Mahukona, arrived on Saturday morning on the steamer Kinau. It is understood that he will take up his residence in this city, after living for 13 years on Hawaii. There is some talk of electing Mr. Wight president of the Wilder Steamship Company. The matter will be settled very soon as a meeting of the company will be held early in September. He is considered a very energetic and practical business man.

Dropped Dead.

A native man, one of the salvationists, was preaching near the fishmarket Saturday, when he suddenly dropped dead. A native who was listening to him, said he was talking politics, claiming that if the ex-queen was restored, the natives would all die. Just as he finished this statement, he dropped dead himself.

THE FLAGSHIP DEPARTS.

She Will Be Pushed in Order to Reach San Francisco Soon.

The flagship Philadelphia left the harbor yesterday morning promptly at eight o'clock with her large silk flag flying at the stern. As she was heaving anchor the cruiser Champion saluted the American flag, the Philadelphia returning the compliment. As the big white cruiser was leaving the harbor her band played "Auld Lang Syne."

During the morning Minister Willis and Consul-General Mills called on board to say good-bye to Admiral Walker, Captain Barker and the officers of the vessel.

The Philadelphia will be pushed in order to reach San Francisco as soon as possible and one officer said that she would go up in less than seven days, but this seems hardly probable as her bottom is very foul. She can be depended upon to make the trip in eight or nine days.

When the Australia left San Francisco the Charleston was ready to leave for this port, but no date was set for her departure.

Officer G. H. Green who looks after the boat landing received a present and the following note yesterday morning:

U. S. S. PHILADELPHIA,
HONOLULU, Aug. 11, 1894.
MR. GREEN, Police Officer at Boat Landing:

Dear Sir: The Ward Room officers of this ship desire you will accept the enclosed present as a slight token of their appreciation of your uniform courtesy in the performance of your duties on the wharf, and your attention to various little matters of interest to them and the ship. They wish you long life and prosperity.

Respectfully yours,
HENRY CLAY COCHRANE,
Captain, U. S. M. C.

A Conversation On Cut-Rates.

"Good morning. You are still cutting prices I hope, for I wish to make a purchase."

"Yes, we are still cutting. We're going to continue so long as the public desire it. They seem to like purchasing a 50c patent medicine for less than the established rates. We are glad to serve them; we want their business and we want their good-will."

"Now, will you please tell me what led to this cutting?"

"There are several reasons. We wish to reach out for more business. There's no better way than to offer goods of best quality at sub-bottom prices. That's always a trade bringer. In this we have not failed in our purpose for we have observed a material increase during the past month. We have new customers come to us every day. They are certainly getting their money's worth here."

Another reason was, that two drug firms made a combination to boycott us because we gave cash customers a liberal discount. A boycott usually ends contrary to the aim sought, and the last conditions prove worse than the first. We have cut below our competitor's prices and we are under-selling every house in our line."

"You say they tried to boycott you?"

"Certainly."

"Well that's sufficient. You'll have my trade in future. Good morning."
